- NO OBSCENE MATERIAL. Please, no pornographic material or links to it. If it is not fit for family members, it is not fit for here. DON'T DO IT! We have a zero tolerance policy on this one.
- NO PERSONAL INSULTS or ATTACKS. You are free to disagree with others, but if you stoop to personal abuse or attacks, your post(s) will be deleted. If you ARE insulted please report the post, but DO NOT retaliate.
- POST IN THE APPROPRIATE FORUM. Please read each forum description before posting to ensure you are posting in the correct forum. Off topic posts will be moved to the correct forum.
- NO DUPLICATE OR REPEAT POSTS. If no-one answers your question or responds to your post, please "bump" it rather than posting it again. Posting the same question over and over or in every forum will just annoy people and will not get answers.
- USE APPROPRIATE TITLES. Titles like 'Help Me' or 'I'm Stuck'serve little value in a forum. Try to be short but descriptive when submitting your post. Likewise, try to be clear and articulate when posting your questions, answers, or comments. Unclear messages/posts only add confusion and may delay responses to your post

- NO ADVERTISING/SPAM or SOLICITATION. Do not use this site as a redirector or gateway to another site for the purpose of collecting click income or advertising. Any SPAM will be immediately deleted and the user warned. Likewise, this is not your personal "for sale" board to advertise items
- SIGNATURES and USER NAMES. While we have allowed the use of signatures as a form of expression, graphics in signatures should be no larger than 100 pixels high by 100 pixels wide - except when uploading images in Coppermine. File size should be no greater than 150KB this includes any text or images used in your signature. Signatures outside this limit will be edited and/or removed. Signatures are bound by the same rules as posts/threads
- PRIVATE MESSAGES. Please do not use the PM system to ask technical support questions of the moderators or admins. Technical support questions PM'd to the moderators and admins will go unanswered. Instead, post your question in the appropriate forum for assistance from other members and board moderators. or email the lets-talk-turkey.eu Support Team using the 'Contact' navigation in the main menu area
- FREEDOM OF EXPRESSION... complexmanagmentbodrum.com do not seek to censor or restrict the freedom of expression of it's members. We follow the principle that the opinion of members, providing that they are factual, fair and of an honestly held opinion which might reasonably be shared by others, is a basic human right. However, it is not always the case that such rights are supported in law and when posting you need to ensure that your comments are factual, balanced and importantly, supportable. If you are unsure - do not post!
